

50-SQLserver 2008

Course Duration	Target Audience	Language	No.Trainees
50 hours	all graduated	English	20:25

Content

- Overview and Installation
- SQL Server Management Studio
- Database Design and Creation
- Security and Compliance
- Defining Tables
- Creating Indexes and Database Diagramming
- In-Memory Tables
- Database Backups and Recovery
- Database Maintenance
- Data Insertion, Deletion, and Transactions—Disk-Based
- Selecting and Updating Data from Disk-Based Tables
- Working with In-Memory Tables
- Building a View
- Stored Procedures, Functions, and Security
- basic T-SQL and Debugging
- Triggers
- Reporting Services

Objective

This course offers you an introduction to SQL server 2008 database technology. In this course, you learn the basic concepts of relational databases and the powerful SQL programming language .

Prerequisites

General background in using computers and managing files.